THE ULTRASOUND COLLECTION

ComicConnect, in our desire to represent the full spectrum of popular culture to our clientele, brings to auction selections from the first-ever batch of CGC-graded original concert posters. The fifty posters all hail from the Pacific Northwest and were created by noted poster artist Mike King as featured in his book "Maximum Plunder: The Poster Art of Mike King." They span the period from the mid-1980s up into the 2000s and run the gamut from Alternative to Hip-Hop, Indy to Punk, Metal to Reggae, and more.

The posters are visually stunning and as they were created to advertise one or two shows, they were often discarded or destroyed after the performances. They are truly unique collectibles that represent memorable moments in music history.

Artists featured include Anthrax, De La Soul, Elliott Smith, Faith No More, Fugazi, Guided By Voices, Hole, Ice-T, Iron Maiden, Ministry, Motorhead, Oasis, Patti Smith, Public Enemy, The Red Hot Chili Peppers, Sepultura, Slipknot, Sonic Youth, The Cramps, The Melvins, The Offspring, The Romantics, The Stranglers, Tito Puente, Toots and the Maytals, and many more.

VIDEO GAMES

Attention Retro Gamers - It's time for the second wave of video game auctions! This time around, we're offering a variety of titles that span across multiple consoles to sate your every desire!

Highlighting our selections are the duo of Double Dragon WATA 3.0 A for the NES as well as Double Dragon WATA 8.5 C+ for the Sega Master System (SMS). This copy of Double Dragon is a very rare, and very hard to find first printing. Few sealed copies of this classic beat 'em up are known to exist. The SMS version of Double Dragon is arguably the better port when talking in terms of gameplay. Whichever copy you choose, just know the treacherous Shadow Boss awaits you...

The upcoming auction has something for game collectors from novice to expert. Bidders will battle over carts from multiple consoles including Atari 2600, NES, Sega Genesis, and Gameboy. ComicConnect is offering most of the classic titles that you grew up on, including the ones that "cheated" forcing you to throw the controller across the room thanks to the boss battle killing you.

This auction is packed with opportunities to pick up something unique for your collection, as well as giving you the chance to begin your hero's journey into video game collecting.

CAPTAIN AMERICA & THOR MOVIE PROPS

Thanks to the MCU and DCEU, comic collecting has grown beyond the scope anyone could have imagined before the blockbuster, groundbreaking film "Iron Man." Shell Head ushered in the cinematic juggernaut that would become the Avengers franchise while values of movie-related key comics exploded. The Superhero genre is one of the hottest tickets in the collectibles world today. We are extremely excited to have acquired some incredible props from the Avengers film series for your bidding pleasure.

For fans of Captain America, behold the awesome array of Cap props up for grabs. From the battle-distressed helmet, leather gauntlet gloves, patriotic shirt, and screen-matched USO Heater Shield from "Captain America: The First Avenger" to the utility belt from "The Avengers," we've got all your Steve Rogers paraphernalia covered. We also have some amazing finds hailing from the silver screen adventures of the Mighty Thor. The pieces cover the range of the Asgardian's trilogy of movies to date, the original "Thor" is represented by Sif's shield, while "Thor: Ragnarok" brings us the Grandmaster's orgy ship dash panel, and last, but not least, the mother of all Thor props, a Mjolnir hammer from "Thor: The Dark World" to round out this superb set of superhero showpieces. They will all be up for auction and we expect the competition to be fierce.

PROPS WILL HAVE A 15% BUYER'S PREMIUM ADDED AT AUCTION'S END.

We are psyched to not only check out these collectible curios personally, but we can't wait till hammer time so we can send these beauties off to their new home or museum.

WONDER WOMAN LASSO OF TRUTH MOVIE PROP

Forged by the gods, Wonder Woman's instantly recognizable golden lasso is indestructible and compels anyone in its grasp to tell the absolute truth. Constructed of durable golden-braided fibers, its bright glow is achieved with post-production CGI. This screen-used prop is in excellent condition although it does exhibit some mild production wear and handling. Wielded by the beautiful and talented Gal Gadot during her appearance in "Batman v Superman: Dawn of Justice" this is not only a treasured collectible from movie history, it is also a wonderful keepsake for any fan of Wonder Woman's revolutionary comic book legacy. With "Wonder Woman 1984" and the Zack Snyder Cut of "Justice League" poised to showcase the Amazonian Princess to adoring fans across the planet once again, there is no better time to invest in Wonder Woman investment collectibles.

PROPS WILL HAVE A 15% BUYER'S PREMIUM ADDED AT AUCTION'S END.

ALL STAR COMICS #8

All Star Comics #8 did for Wonder Woman what Action #1 and Detective #27 did for Superman and Batman. America's Guardian Angel was an instant hit who served as a graphic representation of the women's war effort during WWII, predating Rosie the Riveter by two years. The upside potential of this issue cannot be stressed enough. Wonder Woman's overdue solo film received critical acclaim and birthed a whole new generation of fans, driving up the value of this book, and the much-anticipated sequel "Wonder Woman 1984" is scheduled for a 2020 release.

Overstreet Guide 2019 NM- (9.2) value = $325,000.

SENSATION COMICS #1

Though not the first appearance of Wonder Woman in a comic, this key issue presents her cover debut and inaugural feature story -- an exceptionally big moment in comics history that gave rise to an undeniably major collectible. The story therein showcases sex appeal, feminism, patriotism, romance, magic, and incredible powers which combined to launch the world's first enduring superheroine. Sensation #1 officially established the "trinity" of DC's hero stable and provided a much-needed female role model for millions of fans all over the world.

This title looked and felt like nothing else before or since, and is an important milestone in the industry.

Overstreet Guide 2019 NM- (9.2) value = $150,000.

WONDER WOMAN #6

Most early Wonder Woman issues fell victim to wartime paper drives, spotty distribution, and neglect from male comic hoarders who didn't like icky girl books (and boy, were they missing out). Thus, this comic book is incredibly rare, maybe in the top-five rarest Golden Age DC keys -- there are barely 50 copies on the census, and if there are more than 100 to 125 examples in existence, we'd be shocked. When copies do surface, you can throw out the price guide.

Part of the DC Premiere Collection.

Overstreet Guide 2019 NM- (9.2) value = $14,000.

DC PREMIERE COLLECTION

When faced with a decision of whether to trust his eventual retirement to a 401k and a pension, the consignor of the DC Premiere Collection figured it would be a safer bet to invest his funds in the sturdy, and continually expanding, comic book market. As you can see, his logic was sound, as many of the books in his collection are some of the most valuable and sought-after in the hobby, valued at multiples of his initial purchase prices. Using several of DC's prominent storylines as a roadmap, our consignor acquired an impressive spread of first appearances of characters that are some of the biggest names, as well as an array of cult faves, in the publisher's history, from the Golden Age to the Modern Age. We here at ComicConnect proudly present the DC Premiere Collection to our customers, there's plenty to choose from so bid early and bid often in our second Event Auction of 2020!

MORE FUN COMICS #73

This issue features the first appearance of not one, not two, but three major superheroes of the DC Universe. Green Arrow, his sidekick Speedy, and Aquaman all make their comic book debuts in More Fun #73. Green Arrow later gained new life as a wisecracking political crusader in the 60s and has enjoyed starring in his own television show, "Arrow," which has recently concluded its eighth and final season. The Aquaman franchise has also experienced a great deal of success due to DC's "Justice League" and the character's own self-titled solo film.

As a result, there's no slowing in demand for this key investment collectible. Part of the DC Premiere Collection.
